Our guarantee is that you will always have two videographers for the filming of your wedding. Our experience has taught us that just one is never enough to capture all of those special moments. For such a special event that will only happen once in your life, we must ensure that every moment is captured forever.

All of our packages include a pre-wedding meeting with you to discuss the specifics of the day. This helps allow us to arrive early on your wedding day and film throughout the day with minimal disturbance.
